Line(s)	Hymn/Song	Written by
My chains fell off, my heart was free, I rose, went forth, and followed Thee
For why? The Lord our God is good; His mercy is for ever sure;
He breaks the power of cancelled sin, He sets the prisoner free
And to those who never listened To the message of Thy birth
Words of power that can never fail; let their truth prevail over unbelief
Brought me lower, while I whispered: Less of self, and more of Thee!
Answer Thy mercy's whole design, My God incarnated for me
Forever I'll love you, forever I'll stand Nothing compares to the promise I have in you
By your blood I may enter your brightness search me, try me, consume all my darkness
For young and old, for commonwealth and nation, Lord of our land, be pleased to hear our prayer
Don't carry a load in your pack; you don't need two shirts on your back
Here, in your own appointed way, we come to meet you, Lord
When the strong tides lift, and the cables strain
Arm me with jealous care, as in your sight to live
And was there then no other way for God to take? I cannot say;
Praise Him, still the same for ever, slow to chide and swift to bless:
But for now, I marvel at this saving grace, and I'm full of praise once again, I'm full of praise once again
No lion can him fright: he'll with a giant fight;
Take our ploughing, seeding, reaping, hopes and fears of sun and rain,
As salt are we ready to savour, In darkness are we ready to be light,
