Food glorious food was enjoyed by Lunch Club members at their Christmas lunch and also those who came to the Christmas Day lunch.

Nadia, the supervisor who cooks for Lunch Club every Friday and is ably assisted by her three helpers, prepared, produced and served a delicious Christmas feast for those gathered and seated at festively decorated tables filled with crackers, chocolates, bottles of Shloer as well as a £10.00 gift voucher from Morrisons for each person.

As the meal progressed and between courses a shy Nadia and her team were encouraged to leave the comfort of the kitchen to come and be thanked profusely for the superb meal and for all their hard work throughout the year. Appropriate gifts were given to them and also to Rona, Pat, Brian, and David for all their help with Lunch Club.

Alongside the sixty Lunch Club folk, the invited guests this year were Mayor Hugo Melville and his wife Yvonne, and Glenda and Hayden White, trustees from the William Williams Trust who annually donate a generous cheque for use by the Lunch Club throughout the year. In 2023 the money has allowed us to take a number of outings, have visits by local speakers, craft folk and entertainers. Alan Dymond kindly ran some Christmas-themed quizzes with the winners receiving bars of seasonal chocolate. Then following the mince pies and coffee people were encouraged to retire to the church where Christina from Starlit Memories entertained those gathered with her singing. Joining in the Christmas carols and songs was a lovely way to spend the afternoon.

The Christmas Day meal saw twenty-five people gathered for typical Christmas fayre prepared, cooked, and served by Mark and a family friend, Tessa. At the start of the meal some of the people were friends, others family and others still strangers, but by the end of the afternoon all were enjoying each other's company and chatting away happily. Christmas quizzes punctuated the three courses and seasonal prizes were handed out. On arrival each guest was offered a glass of non-alcoholic mulled punch and the opportunity to listen to Sam on the piano and Lauren on the violin as they played a variety of Christmas music.

It was only natural that at the end of the meal Mark and Tessa were invited to step out of the kitchen where they received a huge round of applause and a gift in appreciation of all they had done. To round off the proceedings every person was given a goodie bag containing a Christmas cake, a chocolate orange, Lebkuchen stars and a pen, all courtesy of Blandford Stour Rotary Club.

Blandford Foodbank news: Faithworks Food Banks right across Dorset have seen over a 200% increase in the number of people receiving food parcels over the last 2 years.

The contributions from Blandford Methodist Church and the Lunch Club are all welcome and being sent to people in real need.

At the Steering Group meeting held in December, we welcomed Nicky Allsopp (CMA Debt Advisor) and Sophie Burditt (Larder Co-ordinator) to their new roles. The Debt Advisor is working with 21 clients, having combined debts of £177,000.

Since January 2023, the food bank has delivered on 614 vouchers, with parcels going to 977 adults and 514 children.

The Christian Buddy Team has eight volunteers ready to help isolated and vulnerable people looking for spiritual support. Once a month on a Thursday, the Friendship Club, run by four volunteers, offers friendship, games, puzzles, fun and conversation.

The Nourish Larder looks like a proper shop and has received positive feedback received from clients. So far there are 44 members and space for a few more.

Looking ahead, the team has plenty of ideas for new initiatives in 2024.
